

Heartland of the Inca: An Epic Journey into the Heart of Latin America and Latino History

Step into the captivating world of Joe and Teresa Lozano Long, two intrepid adventurers whose remarkable lives left an enduring mark on Latin America and Latino culture. As co-founders of the renowned Explorers Club, they embarked on groundbreaking expeditions that reshaped our understanding of the ancient Incan Empire and its enduring legacy.

Unveiling the Secrets of the Incan Empire

Driven by an insatiable curiosity, Joe Lozano Long set out to explore the enigmatic ruins of Machu Picchu in the 1920s. His meticulous documentation and breathtaking photographs brought the lost city to life, captivating the world with its grandeur and architectural ingenuity. Later, alongside his wife Teresa, he delved deeper into the heart of the Incan Empire, uncovering hidden temples, ancient artifacts, and the secrets of a once-mighty civilization.
