From the iconic one-liners of "Mr. Baseball" Vin Scully to the over-the-top antics of Dennis Miller, Costas delves into the stories behind some of the most memorable and outlandish moments in sportscasting history.

The Good

Costas celebrates the masters of the craft, those who have elevated sports commentary into an art form. The book features profiles of:

- Red Barber, the "Father of Play-by-Play"
- Howard Cosell, the controversial and groundbreaking commentator
- John Madden, the beloved and eccentric NFL analyst
- Dick Stockton, the longest-tenured play-by-play voice in NBA history

- Al Michaels, the voice of the "Miracle on Ice" and countless other iconic moments

Through exclusive interviews and behind-the-scenes anecdotes, Costas reveals the secrets of their success and the passion that drives them to deliver unforgettable commentary.

The Bad

Not all sports commentators are created equal. Costas also takes a humorous look at the worst of the worst, those who have made us cringe or laugh at their cringe-worthy attempts at commentary.

From the bumbling play-by-play of Dave Van Horne to the bizarre rants of Dennis Miller, Costas exposes the bloopers, gaffes, and downright strange moments that have plagued the world of sports broadcasting.

The Hilarious

Sports commentary isn't just about delivering the play-by-play. It's also about providing entertainment and laughter. Costas shares some of the most hilarious moments in sportscasting history, including:

- John Madden's famous "turducken" call
- Charles Barkley's "I'm a terrible golfer" rant
- Bob Uecker's "just a bit outside" call
- Ernie Johnson Jr.'s "the roof is on fire" call
- Kenny Smith's "Shaqtin' a Fool" segment

With its captivating stories, hilarious anecdotes, and insights from one of the most respected voices in sports, Tall Tales: The Good, the Bad, and the Hilarious from the Commentary Box is a must-read for fans of sports, humor, and the art of storytelling.

So sit back, relax, and enjoy this wild ride through the world of sports commentary. You'll laugh, you'll cringe, and you'll never look at sports broadcasting the same way again.
